Project Description

The development objective of the Second Additional Financing to Public Procurement Reform Project for Bangladesh is to improve performance of the public procurement system progressively in Bangladesh, focusing largely on the target agencies. The project development objectives (PDO) will be achieved by strengthening the ongoing reform process and moving it further along with the following outputs: (a) enhanced capacity in creating a sustained program to develop skilled procurement professionals, (b) strengthened management and monitoring of procurement in target agencies, (c) introduction of e-Government Procurement (e-GP) in the Central Procurement Technical Unit (CPTU) and the target agencies on a pilot basis, and (d) creation of greater public awareness of a well-functioning public procurement system by engaging civil society, think tanks, beneficiaries, and the private sector. It has comprises the following four components. i) Furthering policy reform and institutionalizing capacity development, ii) Strengthening procurement management at sectoral level and CPTU/IMED, iii) Introducing e-Government Procurement (e-GP), and iv) communication, behavioral change, and social accountability. The e-GP indicator achievement methodology will be adjusted for better clarity; also, as the project will be extended for six months up to June 30, 2017, the end targets of some indicators will be enhanced.
