Project Description

The development objective of Employment Support Project for Mongolia is to provide jobseekers and micro-entrepreneurs in Mongolia with improved access to labor market opportunities. This project has three components. 1) The first component, Supporting client-centric public employment services, aims to address job-search constraints related to incomplete information and poor labor market transparency by supporting client-centric public employment services. 2) The second component, Strengthening select active labor market programs, aims to strengthen the design, relevance, and demand orientation of select active labor market programs. It has three subcomponents as follows: a) Integrated employment training program; b) Support for micro-entrepreneurs; and c) Employment promotion piloting program. 3) The third component, Facilitating labor market monitoring and analysis and project management, aims to enhance the scope, quality, and availability of labor market information for institutional and individual users, to allow them to make informed decisions. It has two subcomponents as follows: a) Labor market monitoring and analysis; and b) Project management and monitoring.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at: <http://ewebapps.worldbank.org/apps/ip/Pages/Home.aspx>.
