Project Description

According to WB website, the project aims to improve equitable access to quality basic education, with a focus on selected disadvantaged areas. The project comprises of three components:

Component 1. Improving access, quality, and education system management supports three government priority areas: (a) enhancing equitable access to quality pre-primary and primary education; (b) strengthening education system management; and (c) the recently identified additional priority of supporting the education needs of public schools in host communities with refugees.

Component 2. Improving school effectiveness through performance-based financing (PBF) which aim to improve the quality of schooling, student retention, and school governance, with an emphasis on girls' education.

Component 3. Institutional strengthening and project management aims to strengthen the capacity of education sector line ministries and relevant agencies toward the achievement of education sector strategy (ESS) objectives.
