Project Description

According to bank documents, Save the Children - Georgia and its partner, Civitas, propose to: (1) design and establish a monitoring and feedback (benchmarking) system for all relevant stakeholders to assess and collaboratively improve pre-school education services in 27 of 71 municipalities, and (2) establish a National Preschool Association (NPA) to extend this benchmarking approach, and other social accountability practices, to all Georgian municipalities and pre-schools.

The Project's Development Objective is to improve the delivery of (and resource allocation to) pre- school education services through collaborative monitoring and feedback (benchmarking) activities between civic, educational and municipal partners.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at: http://ewebapps.worldbank.org/apps/ip/Pages/Home.aspx.
