Project Description

According to the Bank's website, this project aims to improve effectiveness of tax collection and enable the national statistical system to measure economic and social development.

The project will consist of three components:

1. State Tax Service institutional development that will support (i) enhancing the strategic focus and performance of State Tax Service management, (ii) improving human resource management and staff capacity, and (iii) revising the legal framework necessary to support a modern tax administration that is aligned with international good practices.

2. State Tax Service operational development that will support modernisation of operational functions by implementing new streamlined business processes within the State Tax Service and enhanced tax administration Information Technology system.

3. National Statistical Committee institutional development that will support strengthening of the legal environment for the national statistical system and institutional structure of the National Statistical Committee.

According to the Bank, there are no negative environmental or social impacts expected.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at: http://ewebapps.worldbank.org/apps/ip/Pages/Home.aspx.
