Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the Project Development Objective (PDO) is to improve livelihoods support for better skills and access to opportunities in the tourism sector for the most vulnerable poor and marginalized youth and women in underserved target areas in Unguja and Pemba. The PDO will be achieved through provision of a sustainable community based platform facilitating skills and entrepreneurship training as well as linkages to private sector firms for potential employment or access to a market. Entrepreneurs who successfully graduate with a viable business plan will also be eligible for a grant and support to help them establish their business.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

To submit an information request for project information, you will have to create an account to access the Access to Information request form. You can learn more about this process at: <https://www.worldbank.org/en/access-to-information/request-submission>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: <https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint>
