Project Description

According to Bank documents, this project provides financing to increase access to early childhood care and education services, and improve the quality of preschool education in project-supported institutions.

Components include strengthening the governance and regulatory framework of early childhood care, including promoting inclusive preschool education for children with disabilities, expanding the workforce and working conditions for early childhood care, increasing access to high-quality preschool learning environments, expanding access to alternative models of service provision, and partnering with the private sector through a social impact bond in urban areas. Select preschools will also be renovated and be provided with running water, sewage, and heating.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at: http://ewebapps.worldbank.org/apps/ip/Pages/Home.aspx.
