Project Description

This project provides support for activities promoting youth-focused community mobilization and social accountability activities. According to Bank documents, the project aims to ensure that:

1. Communities, particularly youth and marginalized groups, are actively engaged in selecting poverty-focused project interventions
2. Investments in social and economic infrastructure (including electricity) are those that have been most highly prioritized by communities
3. All members of the target communities are provided with the information, facilitation and capacity building necessary to make decisions that are needs-based, and inclusive of women, vulnerable, and poor households

Components include support for community mobilization and capacity building, and for youth engagement in awareness building, participatory monitoring, and social accountability.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at: http://ewebapps.worldbank.org/apps/ip/Pages/Home.aspx.
