Project Description

According to World Bank documents, this project provides financing to the Kyrgyz government to support their Regional Development Strategy (2019 - 2022). This project proposes investments to complement the government's priorities and focuses on local and territorial development, including agriculture, transport, water and private sector development.

The project will focus on the pilot regions of Osh and Batken, including Osh city. Components include:

- Supporting regional transport and connectivity, infrastructure and basic services. These could include sewerage, water supply, drainage system, roads and transport linkage improvements.
- Investments to enhance economic competitiveness of selected urban centers in the sectors of tourism and agro-industry and urban infrastructure.
- Institutional and capacity strengthening of local, regional and central governments.

This project has been categorized as Substantial risk, with the possibility of economic and physical displacement.
