Project Description

According to the bank document, the project aims to "strengthen integrated coastal zone management in selected States and Union Territories. The proposed new operation will build on the 2010 ICZM project's challenges and lessons learned by focusing on (1) further streamlining the institutional mandates, resource flows, and functionalities among government tiers; (2) balancing financial viability and long-term resource sustainability to enable private finance; and (3) linking science to management and decision making, and strengthening the National Center for Sustainable Coastal Management (NCSCM) in order to make it stronger, financially sustainable, and link it to other global centers—in line with India's aspiration to become a lighthouse of knowledge."

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at:
