Project Description

According to the Bank's website, this project provides financing to the Republic of Tajikistan to establish an early childhood development programme to improve school readiness for young children.

Environmental and social risks will be re-assessed at the time of appraisal, and a concept stage Environmental & Social Risk Summary has been created but is not available online. According to the Bank, the main risks associated with the project relate to the ongoing conflict in certain parts of the country, poverty and unemployment that disproportionately affect women, difficulties of participation for poor households, and weak capacity of the Republic of Tajikistan in coordinating the project.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at: http://ewebapps.worldbank.org/apps/ip/Pages/Home.aspx.
