Project Description

According to bank documents, the objective of the operation is to improve effectiveness, transparency, accountability and equity of selected core government functions through a GovTech approach. The operation targets improvements in core government functions to support a more transparent, effective, accountable, and equitable government for the benefit of all Moroccan citizens and businesses. The operation will specifically focus on three functions: data production and use for evidence-based policy making; tax administration; and public procurement. The activities are organized into two key results areas:

1. Key Results Area 1: Improving the Effectiveness and Transparency of selected Core Government Functions.

The operation aims at improving the effectiveness and transparency of core government operations in the areas of data, tax administration and public procurement through evidence-based and coordinated policy and decision-making, as well as improved management and reuse of data.

2. Key Results Area 2: Improving Equity and Accountability of Selected Core Government Functions.

The operation aims at improving the equity and accountability of selected core government operations, including public financial management (PFM), Tax Administration and public procurement to improve government's responsiveness to user needs.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at:
