Supporting the Socio-economic Reintegration of Ex-detainees and Ex-combatants in Southern Thailand

Project Description

According to bank documents, "The development objective of the proposed intervention is to assist the government in refining and operationalizing an enhanced socio-economic reintegration program pilot for selected ex-detainees and ex-combatants and strengthening the institutional capacity for the Southern Border Provinces Administrative Centre (SBPAC). The proposed intervention would assist the RTG in refining and operationalizing an enhanced socio-economic reintegration program pilot for selected ex-detainees and ex-combatants and strengthening the institutional capacity for the Southern Border Provinces Administrative Centre (SBPAC). The overall outcomes would be (i) a pilot socio-economic reintegration is operationalized and institutional capacity in place for government to scale up the socio-economic reintegration program; (ii) 240 ex-combatants/ex-detainees and communities have received safety net and reintegration support; and (iii) monitoring and evaluation system established."

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at:
