Project Description

According to the bank document, the project aims to "support participating cities to develop a systematic and integrated approach to the green and low carbon strategies and planning.

The project funding comes from the Global Environmental Facility's (GEF)-7 Sustainable Cities Impact Program. GEF seeks to support cities and sub-nationals in their effort to fight against climate change, biodiversity loss and other global environmental challenges through sustainable and integrated urban planning.

The project includes three participating cities: Chongqing, Chengdu and Ningbo. In addition, two clusters of cities are under consideration: Chengdu-Chongqing Corridor and Yangtze River Delta Demonstration Zone for Ecological and Green Integrated Development (YRD Demonstration Zone)."

Investment Description

- World Bank (WB)

China was one of the nine countries that were competitively selected for the second phase of the GEF Sustainable Cities Impact Program in December 2019, with the total recipient grant funding of USD 26,909,050.
