Project Description

The project aims to improve access to finance for post-harvest infrastructure investments in grains and dairy thus contributing to a reduction in agricultural losses (and increased climate resilience) in Mexico, with priority given to the South and Center of the country. This will be achieved through its focus on improving the storage capacity, leveraging clean energy solutions, enhancing productivity, competitiveness and economic opportunities of small and medium agricultural producers in economically disadvantaged regions of the country.

Investment Description

- World Bank (WB)

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

- Financiera Nacional de Desarrollo Agropecuario Rural Forestal y Pesquero (Financial Intermediary)

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at: https://www.inspectionpanel.org.
