Project Description

The primary goal of this grant is to assist the Iraqi government's Central Statistical Organization (CSO) and Kurdistan Region Statistics Office (KRSO) in completing the third round of the Household Socioeconomic Survey (IHSES III). The national survey measures almost every aspect of household welfare and serves as the foundation for monitoring economic and governance reforms, as well as the design, targeting, and monitoring of government and Bank programs and policies. It is essential for improving the Bank's ability to apply a poverty and equity lens to all of its operations.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

To submit an information request for project information, you will have to create an account to access the Access to Information request form. You can learn more about this process at: https://www.worldbank.org/en/access-to-information/request-submission

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint
