Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the objective of this project is to promote economic inclusion opportunities for women and youth in non-farm sectors.

Program investments comprise budgetary allocations for schemes and activities across the Skills Development Department (SDD), Commerce and Industries Department (C&ID), Rural Development Department (RDD), Tourism and Civil Aviation Department (T&CAD), Forest and Environment Department (F&ED), which includes eco-tourism), Information Technology Department (ITD), Health and Family Welfare Department (H&FWD), Women and Child Development Department (WCDD); they also include planning through several state-led schemes and activities.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

The E&S risk for the INSPIRES Operation is moderate. Overall, the INSPIRES Operation will have net positive E&S impacts. E&S implications are: (i) civil works for upgradation/O&M of feeder roads and last-mile connectivity roads; (ii) civil works for IT connectivity in one district; (iii) upgradation/refurbishments of SICB and livelihood schools; (iv) upgradation of CFCs and common facilities for entrepreneurs; and (v) increased tourist inflows that could result in increased waste generation and natural resource exploitation.
