Project Description

According to the World Bank, this program will support two key priority results areas in Ukraine's basic education sector: (1) the New Ukrainian School (NUS) Reform of compulsory school education and (2) early childhood and preschool education. Within each of these key results areas, there are four strategic goals which are relevant to the Government program’s theory of change and which will underlie the design of the PforR: (i) access to safe, modern and inclusive learning environments; (ii) quality of curricula and alignment with learner-centered and competency-based approaches to teaching and learning;(iii) skills, knowledge and motivation of teachers and school directors; and (iv) coordination, management, and financing in a decentralized context.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint
