Senegal First Reforms for Inclusive and Sustained Economic Transformation and Transparency

Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the objective of this project is to support Senegal's efforts to (i) boost revenue collection and transparency, (ii) Promoting economic opportunities, and (iii) Strengthening climate resilience.

The Senegal RISE DPF series aims to boost economic transformation and resilience and improve Senegalese living standards in the long term. The proposed operation is organized around three reform pillars: (i) Strengthening revenue collection and transparency; (ii) promoting private sector development; and (iii) strengthening climate resilience. Identified based on strong analytical underpinnings, the DPO series' three pillars aim to inclusive sustainable economic transformation and strengthening transparency.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

The reforms are not expected to have any significant negative impact on the environment, forests, and other natural resources. Reforms designed to boost domestic revenue collection, and transparency are environmentally neutral.

The assessment suggests that the operation, in the short term, is not likely to have significant adverse social effects.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint
