Early Warning System Project Analysis

The environmental and social risks of the IPF component is rated Low since the anticipated risks and impacts are negligible due to the activities of the component. Some potential social risks attributed to the IPF components are associated with labor and working conditions and the likelihood of exclusion in the school enrollment process of children in the literacy/numeracy programs and in the design of workable agreements between established SBMCs and state and local governments and also on the UBEC intervention fund.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: <https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint>
