Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the project development objective (PDO) is to improve human capital outcomes, enhance economic opportunities, and strengthen adaptive social protection systems.

The BOOST-YOU consists of four components, each contributing to deliver on the project development objective, including:

Component 1: Climate Resilience and Human Capital Cash Transfers.

Component 2: Youth Employment.

Component 3: Adaptive Social Protection Delivery Systems.

Component 4: Project Management and Institutional Capacity Building.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

The Project will address most risks and impacts through the implementation of the USR protocols that guard against the key risks of exclusion, elite capture and selection bias. The beneficiary selection process employs a combination of geographical targeting using the District Distress Index (DDI) and poverty targeting (Proxy Means Test -PMT), using the USR to reach out to the most poor and vulnerable households for benefits.

To submit an information request for project information, you will have to create an account to access the Access to Information request form. You can learn more about this process at: https://www.worldbank.org/en/access-to-information/request-submission

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint
