Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the objective of this project is to mobilize finance and enable markets for productive, sustainable and resilient investment.

Expected results are in deepening the financial sector and mobilizing investment demand in productive and green sectors. On the one hand, key expected results include expanding SME access to finance, improving access to banking services through better credit information systems, and increasing liquidity in local capital markets. Additionally, the introduction of climate risk analysis and risk management policies in the banking sector is expected to facilitate green investment strategies, contributing to Indonesia's decarbonization efforts and climate resilience. On the other hand, the operation is also expected to mobilize investment through the successful auction of additional spectrum to mobile network operators, driving significant investments in digital infrastructure, improving mobile internet speeds, and expanding rural coverage.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

According to the Program Information Document (PID), the operation does not foresee direct and significant impacts on the environment, forests, or natural resources from the reform measures it supports.

To submit an information request for project information, you will have to create an account to access the Access to Information request form. You can learn more about this process at: <https://www.worldbank.org/en/access-to-information/request-submission>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: <https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint>
