Project Description

According to bank's website, the approved project aims to increase access to quality health services within participating Pacific Island Countries, with a focus on NCD management. This project has three components. The first component, Strengthen regional systems to improve access to quality care and essential inputs , has the following sub-components: Enhancing quantity and quality of the Pacific healthcare workforce; Using digital innovations to connect patients, providers and health systems; and Expand access to tertiary care and upgraded training facilities within participating PICs. The second component, Modernize Fiji's health System, with emphasis on establishing Networks of Care (NOC) for health promotion, early detection and management of disease, has the following sub-components: Build resilient, person-centered, integrated health service delivery with strengthened capacity to detect and manage NCDs and risk factors in Fiji; and Scale-up gender sensitive community outreach, risk profiling, wellness and behavior change programs in Fiji. The third component, Strengthen stewardship, evidence-based decision making and regional learning for quality health systems in PICs, has the following sub-components: Centers of Excellence for promising health systems solutions; and Project implementation management and regional implementation support.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: <https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint>
