Project Description

According to bank's website, the approved project aims to support a subset of the government's national nutrition program, focusing on regions with the highest burden of malnutrition based on the National Strategy on Food and Nutrition for 2026-2030. The program boundaries are defined by a set of results areas that align with the government's strategy and the World Bank's Country Partnership Framework (CPF, FY27-36) in preparation. The operation will finance a results-based portion of the government's expenditure program, with Disbursement-Linked Indicators (DLIs) that reflect key milestones in service delivery, coverage, and outcomes. PrDO proposed: To reduce the prevalence of stunting among children under five years of age, improve nutrition outcomes among women of reproductive age, and to strengthen local food systems. PDO of ALAFIA I proposed: To improve utilization of quality integrated nutrition, health, and child development services in targeted areas. Key Results Areas being proposed: * RA1: Increase utilization of quality integrated nutrition, health, and child development services* RA2: Enhance community resilience and access to quality nutritious food supply through local engagement and private sector partnershipsAn IPF Component is also being proposed to improve multisectoral coordination, governance, and evidence-based nutrition program design.
