Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the objective of this project is to improve access to essential services for street-connected children and adolescents in targeted areas and strengthen child protection systems nationally.

The project pilots an innovative approach specific to children and adolescents living in street situations in Bujumbura, designed to move beyond isolated service provision toward a standardized, integrated pathway connecting outreach, stabilization, and reintegration.

The project has four components:

Component 1: Improving Quality and Access to Services in Shelters and Drop-in Centers;

Component 2: Economic Pathways for Street-Connected Adolescents;

Component 3: Institutional Capacity Building and Government Systems Strengthening; and Component 4: Project Management, Monitoring and Evaluation, and Knowledge Dissemination.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

The project overall environmental and social risk rating is Substantial at this concept stage.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: <https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint>
