Project Description

According to bank's website, the approved project intended to mitigate the immediate impacts of crises on vulnerable populations by aiding access to critical inputs and the resources needed for recovery. This includes providing direct food aid to households, distributing animal feed to livestock owners, and supplying seeds and other agricultural inputs to farmers. Additionally, technical assistance will be provided to ensure the efficient and effective utilization of these resources, optimizing the recovery process, and enhancing the resilience of affected populations. The overall risk of this operation is low as it includes only emergency response support with a low impact on physical infrastructure.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: <https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint>
