Project Description

According to bank's website, the proposed project is an Investment Project Financing (IPF) operation prepared in advance to enable a rapid and flexible response to eligible crises or emergencies, including natural disasters and climate-related shocks. The project does not have financing committed at approval; instead, it serves as a standing vehicle through which resources can be rapidly repurposed and channeled once an eligible emergency is declared by the Government of Fiji and a request letter is submitted to the World Bank.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

To submit an information request for project information, you will have to create an account to access the Access to Information request form. You can learn more about this process at: <https://www.worldbank.org/en/access-to-information/request-submission>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: <https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint>
