Project Description

According to the bank's website, the project aims to "enhance the private sector's involvement in delivering sustainable social services such as elderly care, health, and education. OPPP will provide transaction advisory services (TAS) and will be supported by technical, legal, and national PPP procurement experts. This will include conducting due diligence, preparation of financial viability assessment and implementation plan, preparing documentation (including concession agreement and other agreements), developing financial models, assisting the timely completion of contract negotiations, and performing other activities as may be required."

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
