Project Description

According to bank's website, the proposed operation is a grant of UA 1,000,000 to the Republic of Liberia to finance the Debt and Ownership Transparency Technical Assistance Project (DOT-TAP). This operation is fully aligned with the country’s national development priorities in order to mitigate macroeconomic and fiscal risks, Liberia must manage its debt sustainably and improve its investment climate, creating the conditions to open more fiscal room for social investment/public spending. Challenges such as limited borrowing capacity, tax evasion, avoidance, IFFs, and perceived low business transparency are key issues addressed by this project in a sustainable manner. The project comprises three components : (i) Enhancing Transparency in Debt Management ; (ii) Improving Transparency in Business Ownership ; and (iii) Project management.

Under the AfDBÕs Disclosure and Access to Information policy, if you feel the Bank has omitted to publish information or your request for information is unreasonably denied, you can file an appeal at https://www.afdb.org/en/disclosure-and-access-to-information/appeals-process.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF AfDB

The Independent Review Mechanism (IRM), which is administered by the Compliance Review and Mediation Unit (CRMU), is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an African Development Bank (AfDB)-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the IRM, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a dispute resolution dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the AfDB complied with its policies to prevent environmental and social harms. You can submit a complaint electronically by emailing crmuinfo@afdb.org, b.kargougou@afdb.org, b.fall@afdb.org, and/or s.toure@afdb.org. You can learn more about the IRM and how to file a complaint at: https://www.afdb.org/en/independent-review-mechanism/
