Project Description

The project will examine the effectiveness, efficiency, and sustainability of the National Urban Health Mission by reviewing the implementation framework, proposed state-level program guidelines, the Mission's capability to achieve desired outcomes in a sustainable manner. It will also analyze the organization of the Mission at central, state, and urban local body levels, including the staff capacity, stakeholder consultation mechanisms, and grievance mechanisms. Additionally, the technical assistance will begin a review of the spending framework and financing plan, assess planning and budgetary processes, and the coverage, level, and distribution of budget allocation. Finally, it will assess predictability and sustainability of financing.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
