Project Description

The proposed investment entails a 3-year, up to RMB 300 million (USD 44 million) LCY senior loan to JD Chongqing Microcredit Company (“JD CQ MCC”), which is the dedicated lending company for the agri-loans under JD Finance. The investment will be secured by the guarantee from its ultimate parent and controller – Beijing JD Financial Technology Holding Co., Ltd. (“JD Finance”).

- (i) Expand financial access to the most underserved agricultural MSMEs;
- (ii) Promote big data based agri-lending: through introducing the advanced internet and mobile based financial services to agricultural MSMEs, and accumulating the necessary data for framers and MSMEs along the supply chain, the proposed business model could potentially bring revolutionary change to the traditional rural finance service approach and lay a solid ground for the future big data based agri-lending;
- (iii) Serve as a pilot program and catalyst to encourage other FIs and ecommerce companies to explore the feasible service model for China rural market.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org. You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org/>
