Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the proposed TA will enhance the outcomes of the Nature Solutions Finance Hub for Asia and the Pacific (NSFH) through developing innovative finance models and nature based-solution projects across the Asia and Pacific (AP) that are bankable and scalable. The TA will also help DMCs strengthen institutional capacity including policies, knowledge and expertise required to address challenges such as climate change and nature solutions.

The TA will provide continued resources to sustain the achievements made under the previous technical assistance, while expanding to also include project preparation support, capacity building and innovative finance models.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit an information request for project information at: <https://www.adb.org/forms/request-information-form>

ADB has a two-stage appeals process for requesters who believe that ADB has denied their request for information in violation of its Access to Information Policy. You can learn more about filing an appeal at: <https://www.adb.org/site/disclosure/appeals>

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>.
