Project Description

The following project information was published but at the time of writing, is no longer accessible on the FMO website.

HPW is a responsible producer of tropical dried fruits and fruit snacks headquartered in Switzerland. Founded in 1997, the Company expanded from a traditional fresh fruit supplier serving Switzerland to become one of the leading dried fruit producers in West Africa supplying high quality tropical snacks to the international market. The Company has 2 local subsidiaries, HPW Fresh & Dry in Ghana and Ivory Coast, together employing ~2,000 local employees and directly / indirectly impacting ~1,500 smallholder farmers.

Proposed is an EUR 7 mln investment loan to HPW Fresh & Dry Ltd to support its expansion of the factory in Ghana to meet the increasing demand from international markets for dried fruits.

HPW Fresh & Dry is the largest tropical dried fruits processor in West Africa.

ENVIRONMENTAL AND SOCIAL RATIONALE: B+, FMO's environmental and social due diligence indicates that the intended investment will have impact which must be managed in a manner consistent with the following Performance Standards:

- PS 1 - Assessment and Management of Environmental and Social Risks and Impacts;
- PS 2 - Labour and working conditions;
- PS 3 - Resource Efficiency and Pollution Prevention; and
- PS 4 - Community Health, Safety and Security.

Additionally, IFC Performance Standards 2 and 6 are indirectly triggered through the Company's supply chain. IFC PS 5, 7 and 8 are not considered to be applicable as HPW Ghana Facility is located on land acquired through a willing buyer willing seller transaction that did not involve involuntary resettlement, and no indigenous people nor cultural sites were identified in the area of influence of the project.

According to FMO's analysis, this project has been categorized as having an environmental and social risk assessment of B+.
