Project Description

According to bank documents, the specific project objectives are to increase farmers' food security and incomes through increased agricultural output and value addition of selected commodities

The project will be a value chain development intervention on selected commodities. It will focus on the provision of the enabling environment for agricultural development of crops (cassava, sweet potato, peanut, beans, coffee, cocoa and oil palm); marine and inland fisheries; small livestock (poultry and small ruminants); and horticulture (vegetables and fruits). It will also deal with the rehabilitation and construction of rural infrastructure, namely feeder roads, market centers, health centers, primary schools, and improve rural energy access. The overall sector goal of the proposed Project is to contribute to wealth creation, as well as food security. Its specific objective is to increase, on a sustainable basis, the income of smallholder farmers and rural entrepreneurs that are engaged in the production, processing, storage and marketing of the selected commodity value chains.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF AfDB

The Independent Review Mechanism (IRM), which is administered by the Compliance Review and Mediation Unit (CRMU), is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an African Development Bank (AfDB)-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the IRM, it may assist you by either seeking to address your problems by facilitating a dispute resolution dialogue between you and those implementing the project and/or investigating whether the AfDB complied with its policies to prevent environmental and social harms. You can submit a complaint electronically by emailing crmuinfo@afdb.org, b.kargougou@afdb.org, b.fall@afdb.org, and/or s.toure@afdb.org. You can learn more about the IRM and how to file a complaint at https://www.afdb.org/en/independent-review-mechanism/.
