Project Description

According to ADB website, the small-scale capacity development technical assistance (S-CDTA) supports the government's priority to develop an efficient transport system and result-based management of the roads subsector. The S-CDTA is included in the country operations business plan, 2014 -2016 for Kazakhstan.

The impact will be improved planning, budgeting and service delivery in the transport sector. It will be monitored through integration of sector performance targets in the medium-term expenditure framework (MTEF) and annual budgets. The outcome will be enhanced institutional capacity of the MOTC to manage the roads subsector using a results-based approach. TA category is not disclosed for this project.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
