Project Description

According to bank documents, the Combating Domestic Violence Against Women and Children Project aims to strengthen the quality of and access to prevention and multi-disciplinary response to domestic violence through: (i) establishment of shelters in three aimags and two districts; (ii) institutional capacity development; (iii) improved prevention and reporting; and (iv) economic empowerment program for survivor women.<sup>1</sup> The project has strong pro-poor, socially inclusive and gender-sensitive features. The project will directly benefit 2,132 persons, including 600 women domestic violence survivors and 130 persons with disabilities (PWDs) in three aimags and two districts, while indirectly benefitting a total of 605,922 persons, of whom women constitute 306,308.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
