Project Description

According to bank provided information, the proposed project includes an investment in local currency of up to US$5 million to Jordan Micro Finance Company (“Tamweelcom” or the “Company”) in the form of a senior term loan with a maturity of three years and a grace period of one year. The project is processed under IFC’s Base of the Pyramid Program. The proceeds of the loan would be utilized by the Company to support its lending program to micro and very small enterprises.

IFC has an approved advisory engagement with Tamweelcom to: (i) implement the Company’s Digital Financial Services (DFS) strategy; (ii) further develop its risk function; (iii) refine and improve its product offering; and (iv), develop a strategic business plan. In doing so the project ultimately aims to strengthen the institution as a whole and increase and expand its outreach.

Private Actors Description

Tamweelcom was established in 1999 as a non-profit limited liability company. The Company was named the “Jordanian Company for Financing Micro Enterprises” at the establishment, and in 2018, Tamweelcom was licensed by the Central Bank of Jordan under the microfinance regulatory framework and changed its name to “Jordan Micro Finance Company “. The Company is wholly owned by Noor Al-Hussein Foundation, an NGO founded by a Royal Decree in 1985 as an implementing arm of the King Hussein Foundation (“KHF”)’s community development initiatives to support low-income entrepreneurs in the remote areas.

Over the years strengthened its market position and grew to be one of the leading MFIs in Jordan operating through 39 branches covering all regions and main populated areas of the Kingdom. By 2020, Tamweelcom was serving 90,000 borrowers (80% women) with a gross loan portfolio of US$74.7million, representing market share of 20% and 21%, respectively.
