Project Description

According to the bank website, "the Government of India, in 2018, launched its flagship health care program, Ayushman Bharat Yojana (Scheme for Healthy India). It has two components to provide comprehensive and universal access to good health care services viz. (i) creation of health and wellness centres for comprehensive primary health care,; and (ii) the formulation of a Prime Minister's Jan Aadhar Yojana Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana (PM-JAY), or the Prime Minister's Health Protection Scheme, providing health insurance for secondary and tertiary health care."

The project outcome is "Strengthened process and institutional arrangements, and institutional framework for providing refinancing window to health service providers partnering with NHA for PM-JAY implementation"

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
