Project Description

According to the bank document, the knowledge and support technical assistance (TA) will involve research and development, policy advice, and capacity development on issues facing ADB's developing member countries (DMCs) in line with the priorities set out in Strategy 2030 (S2030).

This will entail partnerships with prominent researchers from leading international and national research institutions on frontier development topics and methodologies. Collaboration activities will include enhancing the quality of ADB publications such as the Asian Development Review (ADR); co-organizing prominent knowledge sharing events such as Asian Development Conferences; and inviting speakers to share development ideas with ADB on cutting-edge, creative, and sustainable solutions to address DMCs' development challenges.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main
