Project Description

The project provides assistance to development of energy technologies, including technologies for agricultural use.

The project promotes off-grid and grid-connected solar power technologies. It builds capacity of institutions and stakeholders, pilot-tests solar-pumping programs for agricultural use, develops women-led livelihoods, and shares knowledge of solutions and lessons learned. In Bangladesh, the project will work with the Power System Efficiency Improvement Project component Solar Photovoltaic Pumping for Agricultural Irrigation. It includes building 1500 off-grid pumping systems for agriculture and aquaculture with 6.0 MWp capacity to replace diesel-run irrigation. In Nepal, the project will promote expansion of solar power generation with the South Asia Sub-Regional Economic Cooperation Power System Expansion Project. The project will organize exchanges of knowledge from between Bangladesh and Nepal components.

Investment Description

This project is financed by:

Danish Cooperation Fund for Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency in Rural Areas: US$ 350,000

Strategic Climate Fund - SREP (World Bank): US$ 214,000

Second Danish Cooperation Fund for Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency in Rural Areas: US$ 750,000

Technical Assistance Special Fund (Asian Development Bank): US$ 200,000

- Asian Development Bank (ADB)

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF ADB

The Accountability Mechanism is an independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an Asian Development Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Accountability Mechanism, they may investigate to assess whether the Asian Development Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can learn more about the Accountability Mechanism and how to file a complaint at: <http://www.adb.org/site/accountability-mechanism/main>
