Project Description

Proposed Development Objective(s)

The objective of the proposed grant project is to assist the GoP to formulate and implement a debt management strategy that contributes to fiscal sustainability while minimizing the funding costs and keeping the debt exposure under control. Achieving the end objective would require building capacity in the entities responsible for different debt management functions. Accordingly, this grant is designed to improve debt management practice in Pakistan by assisting the authorities strengthen two key functions: (i) formulation of a debt management strategy and risk management in the Debt Policy Coordination Office (DPCO); and (ii) raising funding in external markets by the External Finance Wing (MoF).

Key Results

DPCO: (i) Extension of the Medium-term debt strategy analysis to 5 years; (ii) potential narrowing of the bands for the currency and refinancing risk indicators as defined per MTDS 2016-19, i.e., (a) share of external debt in total public debt and (b) domestic debt maturing in 1 year (as percent of total); and for EF: (iii) quarterly market monitoring reports.
