Project Description

According to the project document, "the aim is to follow-up on the Related Party Transaction (RPT) guidebook that has been created by FMO and IFC and published at the beginning of 2016. The next will be a RPT e-learning sector initiative for the Vietnamese banking sector (including FMO clients and non-clients). The sector initiative, if successful, will facilitate finding new clients and improve the management of RPTs throughout the sector. FMO promotes adequate management of RPTs throughout the Vietnamese banking sector."

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF FMO

Communities who believe they will be negatively affected by a project funded by the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) may be able to file a complaint with the Independent Complaints Mechanism, which is the joint independent accountability mechanism of the Dutch Development Bank (FMO) and the German Investment Corporation (KfW). A complaint can be filed in writing, by email, post, or online. The complaint can be filed in English or any other language of the complainant. The Independent Complaints Mechanism is comprised of a three-member Independent Expert Panel and it can provide either problem-solving, compliance review or both, in either order. Additional information about this accountability mechanism, including a guide and template for filing a complaint, can be found at: <https://www.fmo.nl/independent-complaints-mechanism>
