Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the Agence de Prestations Maritimes ("APM") is an integrated provider of real estate warehousing/storage for rent and logistical services. APM provides end to end supply chain services to over 200 local and international customers active over a wide array of sectors (retail, manufacturing, agriculture) out of the of Kribi and Douala ports. APM currently employs 190 full time staff. The Company has set up a representative office in N'Djamena (Chad) and has a similar plan for Central African Republic ("CAR") whose importers and exporters face some of the challenges encountered by Chadian customers and also depend heavily on Douala and Kribi for its foreign trade.

The Project consists of i) the expansion of APM's existing warehousing facilities in the Douala Port area, ii) the construction of additional warehousing facilities in Douala's largest industrial zone, iii) the construction of a wood park the Kribi port area and iv) the refinancing of existing long term local currency LT debt facilities.
